GEORGE TEAGUE NAMED AS EMCEE FOR BOOTS & BLING GALA

The Little Elm ISD Education Foundation is pleased to announce that George Teague, former Dallas Cowboy, will emcee our Boots & Bling Fundraising Gala and Silent Auction on Friday, March 27, at the Tribute Golf Club in The Colony, TX.

George Teague was a first-round draft pick for the Green Bay Packers. His nine-year NFL career included one year with the Miami Dolphins and five years with the Dallas Cowboys. He participated in 11 post-season games and holds the NFL record for the longest interception return in playoff history with a 101-yard touchdown. Teague is also famous for an incident during a 2000 Cowboys game. When Terrell Owens attempted to spike the football on the Cowboys star at the center of the Cowboys field, Teague knocked him off.

All proceeds from this incredible event benefit the Education Foundation's mission to support the teachers and students of LEISD. To purchase tickets to the event, VISIT THIS LINK.

Friends of the Foundation

The Education Foundation is looking for volunteers who would like to serve as Friends of the Foundation, a group that will meet quarterly and assist the Board with community events. This is the perfect opportunity for individuals who want to be involved, but are not able to commit to a Board of Directors position. Lobo Honors Award Winners to be Announced

The 2020 Lobo Honors Award Winners will be announced this month, and we are so excited to surprise them!

Students were asked to nominate an educator by writing an essay that explained how this person had made a positive impact in their lives and helped them reach their full potential. After reading all entries, the review committee will select a winning essay from each campus. The winning students and teachers, along with their families, will be invited as honorary guests to the Boots & Bling Gala in March. Cathy Capps-Warren, LEISD Education Foundation President stated, "The Lobo Honors Award nominations are always so uplifting and from the heart. It is very moving to read about the differences made in our students' lives. We are excited to celebrate these teachers and give them the recognition they deserve."

The

PRESIDENTS' CORNER

Are you the President of an LEISD Booster Club or PTA? We would love to connect with you! The Education Foundation will host a Presidents' Corner meeting in May for both outgoing and newly elected Presidents to share scheduled events, share fundraising strategies, and learn how we can support the different organizations within LEISD. Stay tuned for more details, or contact admin@leisdef.net if you have any questions.
